

★Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam".

By June Jones

AFTER SOME nine years of operating this column we are this week relinquishing it to a guy who has been working on a newspaper for nearly 40 years—our Pop. Whether he is capable of maintaining its high standard of literary character is a problematical chance that will have to be taken by us and both of our readers.

The junior partner in The Herald is moving a portion of the Herald equipment, and buying additional pieces, and establishing a commercial printing plant in Abilene, where much of our printing business in recent years has originated.

In saying "adios" to the paper and the people of Hamlin community who have been so patient and courteous and loyal to us for the past 10 years, my family and I will cherish many fond memories—and some sad and disappointing ones.

In our move to Abilene we feel that our abilities and services will find wider reception. With thousands of dollars worth of equipment placed at Hamlin, far above that of the average small town printing plant, we have been disappointed at the patronage by the community accorded us. We already are assured of a good business with firms we have been serving in the recent past.

Without seeming "preachified" we would admonish the people of Hamlin and community to support their printing office and newspaper more loyally. In fact, that same spirit of disloyalty is likely to cause other businesses to move or close up in Hamlin. We are afraid.

We have worked hard in a quiet sort of way to help make Hamlin a better place in which to live. We've spent our means here, have tried to boost and not criticize every progressive move for our community.

We will continue to live in our home here until housing can be arranged for in Abilene. As we sever our relationships with the paper we wish for Hamlin and its people success, harmony and good health. Thanks for everything—June, Louise, Dubby and Mike.

A FELLOW from Aspermont was telling about the visitor at the country place who had to sleep with the five-year-old son of the host. As they retired, Johnny knelt quietly at the bedside. Not to be outdone or set a bad example, the visitor did likewise.

Instantly Johnny jumped up and, with a horrified expression on his face, yelled at the grown-up: "I'll tell my mama on you; there's only one and it's on my side!"

Bids Called for on Hamlin-to-Aspermont Highway Project

Commission Lost No Time in Plans For Area Work

Texas Highway Commission has lost no time in getting underway with the highway building and repairing program scheduled in the Hamlin territory for the next two years, once the federal assistance money was made available by recent action in Washington.

This week bids are being called for on the 19.81-mile stretch of Highway 83 from Hamlin to Aspermont, which will be widened and otherwise improved; and surveys are working on the 21-mile stretch of Highway 94 from Hamlin to Tuxedo.

These two projects, along with two farm-to-market highway jobs in the area are part of a major highway improvement program planned by the highway department for the next biennium in cooperation with the federal government. More than $4,620,000 has been allotted to the Abilene district of the highway department.

The call for bids on the Aspermont stretch propose widening of the right-of-way and highway surface, straightening in several segments, leveling of roadway, widening and improved drainage structures and resurfacing of the entire 19.81-mile stretch.

The Highway 94 segment from Hamlin to Tuxedo east, bids for which should be called probably this fall, will include widening of right-of-way, more new drainage structures, rebuilding of entire highway roadbed and resurfacing.

The two farm-to-market projects are resurfacing of Highway 1636 south of Hamlin; and construction of a new segment from Lawlis Flat toward Sylvester.

City-Wide Mosquito Fogging Move Begun

Campaign against mosquitoes that have recently invaded the Hamlin territory was started last week by the City of Hamlin with spray fogging under the direction of Bill Rountree.

Although generally the dry weather has kept the insect population down, recent showers have left standing water in cans, low places and around air conditioners have implemented their breeding.

Baptist Young People Plan Picnic at River

Young people of the community will have a picnic and outing at the Brazos River bridge, north of Hamlin, Saturday evening under auspices of the youth of the First Baptist Church, according to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wiggins, sponsors.

Youth of the church and their friends will meet at the church at 7:00 o'clock and go in a group to the picnic spot. Attendees are asked to bring as many sandwiches as they can eat, and 30 cents for drinks and potato chips.

EVANGELIST for a series of revival services beginning August 10 at the North Central Avenue Baptist Church will be Rev. T. W. Teel, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Blackwell. Services are scheduled at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., according to Rev. Woodrow McHugh, pastor.

June Jones Installs Abilene Printing Shop

After a little more than 10 years in Hamlin, during which time he has been publisher of The Herald, June Jones has moved with his family to Abilene, where he has established a printing plant at 532 South 11th Street in Southeast Abilene.

The family will continue to live at their home in South Hamlin until housing arrangements in Abilene can be arranged.

The Herald will continue to operate under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Jones, parents of the former publisher.

Young Ministers To Direct Hitson Revival Services

Three young Baptist ministers will be featured in revival services that begin Friday night at Hitson Baptist Church, six miles northwest of Hamlin, according to the pastor, Rev. R. A. Guthrie.

Services will be conducted through Sunday night, August 12. Services will be held each weekday morning at 11:00 o'clock except Saturday, and evening preaching will begin each evening at 8:00 o'clock. Prayers services also are scheduled at 7:30 each evening.

Rev. Guthrie will preach the first three days. Beginning Monday, Dr. Albert Lunday, pastor of Ovalo Baptist Church and professor of sociology at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene will preach the remainder of the revival. Rev. Doyle Combs, pastor of Wastella Baptist Church, north of Roscoe, will direct the song services.

Pastor Guthrie and his congregation invite the public to attend the series of services.

Western Union Office Moved to Shoe Shop

Location of the Western Union telegraph office in the Hamlin Shoe Service building was completed this week by company representatives. The office formerly had been located at the Hamlin Flower Shop.

Mrs. Bud Waldon is the new operator of the wire service, next door north of The Herald.

Run-Off in Sheriff's Race Set by Election

Reves and Woody To Vie for Office In August Vote

Race for Jones County sheriff, the major contested race involved in county voting last Saturday, remained undecided after tabulation to ballots cast in spirited voting. The incumbent, Dave Reves, and O. D. (Doyle) Woody will go into a run-off election on August 11.

Reves, serving his second term, tallied 2,108 votes, lacking 193 of getting a majority over his two opponents, Woody and E. M. (Roe) Isbell. Woody received 1,236 and Isbell 1,066 votes.

In the other two contested races, both for precinct offices, Lem Ruark was reelected county commissioner of Precinct 3. He received 467 votes to 245 for Eldridge Nix.

Wylie Hughes was named constable of Precinct 2 (Lueders, Avoca, Stamford) over Max McFadden. Hughes tallied 918 votes to 545 for McFadden.

Methodist Men Will Go to Area Assembly At Ceta Canyon Site

Five men from the First Methodist Church were planning to attend the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference for laymen beginning Friday morning at Ceta Canyon Methodist Assembly near Happy. Scheduled to make the trip are L. H. McBride, Joe Culbertson, Willard Maberry, E. C. Feagan, Art Newcombe and possibly others. The assembly, the tenth annual retreat, is sponsored by the conference board of lay activities, headed by Ray H. Nichols of Vernon.

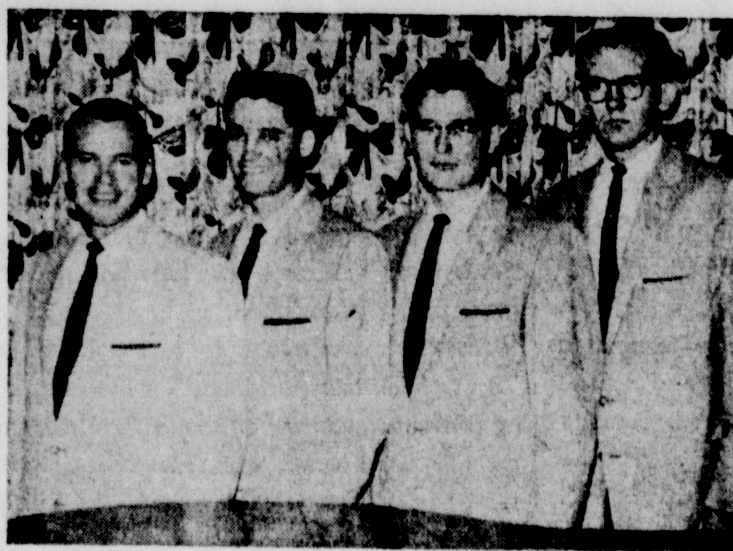

Featured speakers will be Dr. J. Chess Lovern of Lubbock, Dr. Edwin A. Briggs of Chicago, Illinois, and Dr. J. Albert Gatlin of Paragould, Arkansas.

Activities get underway Friday at 7:30 o'clock and continue until Sunday afternoon.

County Included in Emergency Program

By special legislation passed in Washington Tuesday, Jones County was included within the fourth emergency feed program of the government, according to a telegram to The Herald from Congressman Omar Eulson.

Under this special provision Eulson advises farmers and ranchers of the county will be permitted to graze the acreage reserves included in the recent soil bank program.

DUE TO SING MONDAY NIGHT at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene is the Bethany Nazarene College Quartet (above) from Bethany, Oklahoma. An hour-long program of hymns, gospel songs and spirituals is being presented. The public is invited to attend the program at 7:45 o'clock.

Mail Service Not To Be Penalized

Hamlin area will not be made to suffer materially in mail service if certain railroad carrying services are changed, declares J. N. McKean, special assistant postmaster general at Washington, D. C., in a letter to editor of The Herald.

The letter was written following Kean's receipt of issues of The Herald in which it was stated that curtailed mail service for the Hamlin section had been proposed.

The complete text of the letter follows:

I have just read the editorial "Curtailed of Train Mail Service Proposed," in the July 12 issue of your newspaper.

DePriest School Will Open Term August 13

Following a plan inaugurated several years ago, the DePriest Colored School in Hamlin will begin the 1956-57 term on Monday, August 13, according to word from E. S. Morgan, principal, who is taking work on his doctor of education degree at the University of California in Los Angeles.

The early opening schedule has been practiced for a number of years in order to give the children some time to help their parents during the harvest season.

With recent improvements in facilities at DePriest School, this is expected to be one of the best years at DePriest, Morgan declares.

While we certainly can understand your concern with the possibility of losing railway mail service, I believe we can point out some logical reasons for the study that has been made of the Altus to San Angelo line and can assure you that no change will be made unless service equal to or better than existing mail deliveries can be provided.

Regional officials have full authority to make such studies as they consider advisable for improvement of service or economy reasons. Any recommendation for a major change would, however, be submitted to this bureau for review, analysis and approval.

Inasmuch as no such proposal has been received in the bureau, we are not acquainted with the details of this particular study.

Your editorial quotes postal transportation officials as saying that in the event of a change in the mail service on the Altus to San Angelo route, postmasters "would receive as good or better service." You followed this with the assertion that certain unnamed "informed persons" characterized the statement of the officials as "not true."

RECALLING Other Years

☆ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper. The Herald.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.
News notes of interest in the Hamlin community 20 years ago included the following, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 31, 1936:

Tom Teague, W. E. Benson and Ted Russell went to Dallas Sunday and saw the Centennial, and back over to Fort Worth Monday to the Frontier. Ask them what they saw.

Men's shoes are priced in the Strauss Dry Goods Company advertisement at $1.98 and $2.98 per pair.

Mrs. Carl Greenway, Elva and Lee and daughter, Mrs. Coleman Gibbons, left Monday to take in the Dallas and Fort Worth Centennials.

W. C. Hamric, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elkins, was mysteriously slugged Monday morning when he went to stake out his cow in South Hamlin. Taken to an Abilene hospital, he remained unconscious until Wednesday. He remembers little of what happened.

James V. Alfred apparently has been elected governor in Saturday's election. A run-off between Clyde Garrett and Thomas L. Blanton, incumbent, is slated.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carter of Wolfe City are spending the week with their brother, W. J. Carter, and family.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Among goings-on in the Hamlin community 10 years ago were the following, as recorded in the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 2, 1946:

William Blanton of Albany and Omar Burleson of Anson are slated to go into a run-off for the post of Congress from the 17th District following Saturday's election in which six others were eliminated. Bill Dunwoody defeated two opponents for sheriff. Herb Rowland was named county clerk over the incumbent Mrs. Oma Spraberry. Bill Armstrong was ousted as county treasurer by Gene Spurgin Jr.; and in the Hamlin precinct commissioner's race Ralph Riddle, incumbent, was defeated by Roy Brown.

Hopes for a good maize crop in the Hamlin section this season is fading with continued dry weather. Cotton is holding up fairly well.

Hilton and Flat Top communities have petitioned the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District for consolidation with the Hamlin district. Six other adjoining districts have recently been merged with the Hamlin district.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Among happenings of the Hamlin community five years ago were the following, reproduced in brief from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 3, 1951:

More than $3,000 had been raised by the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce by Wednesday to construct and maintain a migratory labor camp for cotton pickers, according to Carl Murrell, CC president. An open-front fire-proof structure will be built one block west of the Santa Fe depot on city property.

McBride & Johnson elevator bought the first load of 1951 maize Wednesday afternoon. It was harvested off the L. O. Bowen farm, five miles northwest of Hamlin.

Fall football practice has been set by Coach Jess Burditt to begin August 27, it is announced. A strenuous schedule of football game is on the Ped Piper slate, and the coaches are hopeful that they will have material for a winning crew this year.

ONE YEAR AGO.

News items in the Hamlin community of one year ago included the following, condensed from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 29, 1955:

Seventy-five boys of the Northern District of the Chisholm Trail Council of Boy Scouts were here Sunday to participate in an invitational swimming tournament at the new swimming pool in the Hamlin City Park.

Better facilities are being offered golfers and other members of the Lakeview Golf Club since completion of new additions to the club house and improvements on the greens and fairways of the nine-hole golf course.

Adjusted increases in telephone rates for Hamlin were allowed the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company by the City Council after the group heard officials of the phone concern at council meeting Tuesday evening. The new rates will become effective with February 1 billings.

are responsible for the movement of mail in that area are also men who are familiar with the handling of mail for your region, and I am sure the regional director of the Post Office Department at Dallas would be glad to furnish you schedules of any proposed changes, when or if they are made, and explain the advantages of such changes.

The editorial says your informant believes that service in your community should not be made to suffer in order to foot the bill for someone else's better service only because of their more fortunate location with respect to air fields.

However, with reference to the experiment of flying three-cent air mail on a non-priority space available basis, the department has substantially improved service in the areas in which the experiment has been conducted without added cost.

It has always been Post Office Department policy to utilize the speediest available means of transportation. The department must therefore, take fullest advantage of the new developments in air and highway transport.

You refer to the "pretext" for the proposed change "under the guise of economy."

In making changes in transportation, the department is definitely committed to economy as well as service improvement. You, as a taxpayer, would insist on such a policy. In pursuance of that policy, the total sum paid out to carriers for postal transportation was reduced from some $421,000,000 in fiscal 1953 to $378,000,000 in fiscal 1955 even though the volume of mail increased.

Actually, you and your readers are, we believe, principally concerned with having your mail delivered to and from Hamlin as fast as possible and not necessarily with how it is done, whether by truck or train as long as the service is dependable.

Any recommendations made for a change in transportation media would be based on such factors.

I am sure you are interested in the real facts of this case and I can assure you they are, or will be, available to you if such a proposal is made.

Blackwell Pastor To Lead in North Central Revival

Summer revival of the North Central Avenue Baptist Church is scheduled to begin next Friday, August 10, and continue through Sunday, August 19, according to Rev. Woodrow McHugh, pastor.

Doing the preaching in the series of services will be Rev. W. T. Teel, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Blackwell.

Services will be conducted at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m. Prayer services for all group will be conducted each evening at 7:30, the pastor announces.

Rev. Teel was educated at Texas Technological College at Lubbock and Southwestern Theological Seminary at Fort Worth. Beginning his religious work in Dallas in 1946, he has held pastorates in Fannin County, Peacock in Stone-wall County and is now in his second year as pastor at Blackwell.

Many Baptists of the Hamlin area are well acquainted with Mrs. Teel since she has taught at Lueders Baptist Encampment every year since 1951.

The first residents of the White House were President and Mrs. John Adams in November, 1800.

Jones County 4-H Club Boys Attend Six-County Camp

Jones County 4-H Club boys attended the annual Six-County 4-H Club Camp at Lake Cisco last week, according to Bill Lehman, county agent. In all, 35 boys and eight adults attended.

While at camp the boys participated in swimming, horse, shoes and washer pitching, track events, tug-of-war contests, miniature golf, and skating. In the various contests Jones County boys placed third or higher in all events.

Adults who attended included Birger Haterius of the Ericksdahl club; Woodrow Bagley, J. W. Black and Howard Roberts of the Anson club; J. A. Ham of the Lueders club; H. E. Whitworth of the Avoca club; and E. R. Vinson of the Hawley club.

Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, Spanish explorer, was probably the first white man to see California, in 1542.

MAKE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT SELF-PAYING

Considerable talk has been underway over the country about the deficit operations of various departments of the government, particularly the Post Office Department. We here in the Hamlin territory may think that the matter is really none of our business. But, after all, we are part of the government, and definitely we can have our opinions—and even make them heard and felt.

When we go to the post office to mail a letter or package or postcard, we shouldn't expect even our government to lose money on the transaction. Our interest should be that our government be operated on a sound, business-like basis. Certainly it would be cheaper for all the users of the postal services to make them self-supporting rather than for the nation to borrow huge sums of money, or raise the sums by further taxation than to have to pay interest on a lame duck proposition.

A short time ago Postmaster General Sumnerfield made a statement endorsing in unqualified terms a resolution adopted by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. This resolution urged that postal rates be increased sufficiently to place the postal system "on a non-profit, self-supporting basis." It further said: "Postal rates, and charges for special services, should be set at levels which yield the Post Office Department total revenue equal to total expenditures. Rates on fourth class mail should at all times yield the Post Office Department revenues sufficient to cover the full cost of the service." Parcel post falls into the fourth class mail classification.

Another paragraph of the resolution said: "Cost of services performed for the Post Office by other government agencies should be added to postal costs, and services performed for other government agencies by the post office should be deducted from postal costs. The postal service should be conducted according to the highest standards of efficiency in either business or government, and constant efforts should be made to improve the service in the interests of the public."

What this amounts to is that the people who use the postal service in any of its branches should pay the actual costs of carrying on that service. It's difficult to see how there can be any logical argument in opposition.

The Record Speaks

Germany—a country which was ravaged by war, suffered total defeat, and has since been a bedeviled sector of the cold war—can teach the United States some lessons as to the value of free enterprise.

Germany's post-war economic recovery is almost universally described as miraculous. That miracle, as William Henry Chamberlain explains in a book review appearing in The National Republic, is one of the most compelling arguments "for the dynamic effectiveness of capitalism, without 'but,' 'whereas' and 'on the other hands.'" He adds: "The men who directed economic policy . . . believed passionately in free enterprise, competition, free international trade and investment."

By contrast, those European nations—including victorious nations—which deserted these principles in favor of some form of paternalistic state have suffered one economic crisis after another, coupled with all manner of political crises.

The record speaks for itself.

Two-Way Obligation

The president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States recently said business men have both the obligation and the right to speak on political and other issues of the times. He then mentioned certain things which business men should be solidly against—among them government in business and high taxes.

This is a logical position. At the same time business men must realize that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. If, as they should, they oppose costly special favors for other groups, they should be as adamant in opposing special favors for themselves. Business group have often and deservedly lost public regard because they have supported proposals for government spending that would benefit them—while urging strict economy when it came to the other fellow.

Working for Government

The best way to judge the scope of the tax burden is by how much of your working time goes to pay for it.

In 1929, one day's labor out of 10 went to support the government, according to the National Association of Manufacturers. Now the average is one day in four.

What will the figure be 15 years or so from now?

Power in a Sentence

Governor Elmo Smith of Oregon, in discussing a proposed tax program, covered a problem of national scope in this single sentence: "Too many people think in the back of their minds that a tax is something someone else should pay, and a service is something they should receive."

Individuals and groups and organizations of every kind are trying to pay as little in taxes as possible—and, at the same time, trying to get as much special privilege from government as possible.

So long as that attitude prevails we will have wasteful, exorbitantly expensive government—along with a dangerous degree of political domination of our lives and pursuits.

New Glory for the Ads

The following advertisement, "Wanted—A general soaking rain. Please rush.—Cliff Perkins," appeared in the West Branch, Iowa, Times (Herbert Hoover's birthplace) on April 26. The paper went into the mail about 8:00 o'clock in the morning. By supper-time the rain came and brought an end to an eight-month dry spell.

It is estimated this advertisement was worth millions to the residents of Cedar County and the state of Iowa. You don't have to argue with Cliff Perkins and his friends on the power of the country press.

Editorial of the Week

FARMING A NEW WAY

At home farmers are doing their farming in the courthouses. The soil bank policy is being put into gear.

Here is how it works in Iowa, where farmers take in two billion dollars annually from the sale of products: A farmer puts 36 acres of a 1,200-acre farm in the soil bank. He has only 36 acres of pasture land. Cattle are removed from the pasture until January 1 for which the farmer will receive $1,000. He then can restock or go back to the courthouse and make another wacky deal.

Another man has 97 acres of corn. The soil bank will pay him $4,258 to plow it under. Or if he likes he can harvest the corn and cancel his agreement with the government, if it rains and a good crop is made.

Soil bank payments in Iowa alone may run to twenty or twenty-five million dollars. A fine example of Washington's brilliant planning. Just do something. Make it complicated and expensive! Put more people on the government payroll. Raise taxes and devise foolish plans to give it away!—The Graham Newsfoto.

Dan Kralis, Loser in Congress Race, Says He Will Run Again in Two Years

Dan Kralis, Abilene oil man defeated Saturday in his race against U. S. Representative Omar Burleson of Anson for the Democratic nomination for 17th District congressman, Monday attributed that loss to a "vicious character assassination whispering campaign," and said he will run against Burleson again in 1958.

Full text of his telegram from Houston to Howard McMahon publisher of The Abilene Reporter News, follows:

"I congratulate Mr. Burleson on his sixth term. It has been determined that my defeat largely can be attributed to a vicious character assassination whispering campaign that was coldly calculated and organized by a special element in Abilene and carried to every town and village in the district by unique means.

"Since I pledged to the public I would not wage a mud slinging campaign, I chose to ignore the vicious slander that was carried by word of mouth and hoped the voters would, too. This was a serious mistake in my political strategy, and I was so advised by Tom Blanton Sr. and other great Democratic leaders in the district over a month ago.

"I will not make this same mistake when I run again against Burleson in 1958. My campaign will be fully organized with no holds barred, and this time the public will be fully informed with names, places and dates, and in particular about the whispering campaign of 1956. I want to believe Mr. Burleson was not part and parcel of this smear technique.

"My inexperience in politics led me to believe that an honest, sincere man could run for public office without fear of smears from a particular element whose business is not politics. This was a very costly mistake."

VETERAN QUESTIONS

The questions and answers below about veteran problems are carried as a service to present and former service members. Material for this column is supplied by the area office of the Veterans Administration at Lubbock.

Question.—Premiums on my World War II GI term insurance policy are being waived because I have been totally disabled for more than six months. While any policy is under waiver do I have the right to convert it to a permanent plan of insurance?

Answer.—You may convert your GI term policy to any permanent plan other than an endowment. You will not be required to take a physical examination.

Q.—My three-year deadline for starting Korean GI training will come in about six months. However, I recently enlisted in the armed forces, and I will be on active duty when that date comes around. Will I be able to start my training after I get out of service?

A.—No. Under the law, a veteran must begin Korean GI training within three years from the date of his first discharge. The law has not made any exceptions for veterans in service on their deadline dates.

Q.—May a veteran join with a non-veteran in obtaining a GI business loan?

A.—Yes, but the amount of the loan on which VA's guaranty is based will be in proportion to the veteran's interest in the loan. The guaranty cannot extend to any portion of the loan constituting the non-veteran's contribution to the enterprise.

Q.—What type of farm must a veteran have in order to qualify for farm training under the Korean GI bill?

A.—The basic activity of the farm must be the cultivation of the land or the feeding, breeding and management of livestock or poultry. Or it may be any other specialized farming commonly followed in the area. It may not be the processing, distribution or sale of agriculture products, such as a dairy processing plant or a grain elevator.

Swimming Classes For Ladies Scheduled At Pool at City Park

Crowds at the Hamlin swimming pool are continuing even to late summer, reports Jess Parrish, pool manager.

Addition of a ladies' swimming class has caused the adult participation to rise during the past two weeks. A special session for ladies is being held each Wednesday and Friday mornings. Each of these mornings will be set aside for ladies and their children, from 10:00 to 11:30 a. m. It is hoped, Parrish said, that this session will answer the demand for those ladies who are just learning to swim and also interest those who do not prefer mixed swimming.

Approximately 75 Cub Scouts are enjoying the facilities of the local pool during their three-day camporee which is being held this week.

McCOYS HAVE GUESTS.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCoy the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morrison and daughter, Macbeth, of San Francisco, California. His mother, Mrs. Rade Morrison of Whittier, California, accompanied them to Texas and visited relatives in Sweetwater and Abilene. The Morrisons formerly lived in Hamlin.

Total Business in Texas First Half of Year Best Ever

While continued drought in the Hamlin area has affected business considerably, the total business in Texas enjoyed the best six months ever recorded during the first half of 1956, despite some weak spots in the economy, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports in a release to The Herald.

The increase in business volume for this year however, has not been as great as in some other years, the bureau explains. Retail sales and some types of building decreased.

The building decline was shown in building permits issued, but that decline was concentrated in the residential category. Non-residential building, which includes industrial, commercial, institutional, public utility and public building, increased 23 per cent over the first half of 1955.

The only other component of the bureau's index of business activity that declined between the first half of 1955 and the like period in 1956 was retail sales. Sales of non-durable goods, however, were two per cent higher.

EXPLOSION SITE—This map locates the Texas Panhandle town of Dumas, where an oil storage tank at the Shamrock McKee refinery exploded.

Consumer income continued to rise during the first half of 1956. Industrial building increased 58 per cent; industrial electrical power consumption rose 19 per cent, and total electrical power consumption increased 16 per cent.

Next regular meeting of the Good Neighbor club will be September 11. The program will be the election of officers for the ensuing year.

MAKE THEMSELVES HEARD.

At a Mormon wedding in the days of polygamy, the preacher was a bit hard of hearing and had some difficulty in getting the proper responses.

"Do you take these women to be your lawfully wedded wives?" "I do," replied the groom.

"Do you take this man to be your lawfully wedded husband?" he asked the women. There was a faint chorus of "I do."

The minister glared. "Some of you girls in the back row will have to speak louder if you want to get in on this."

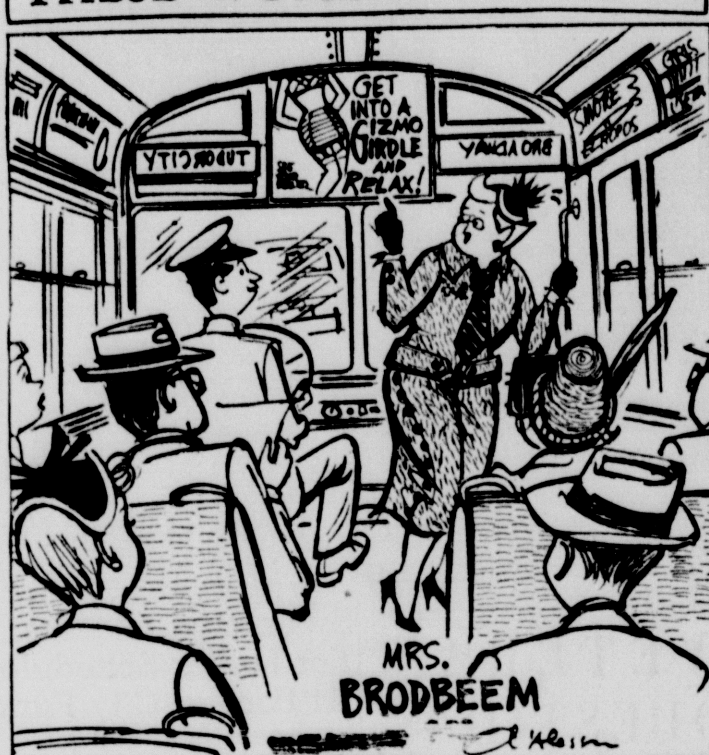

MUCH TOO ONE-SIDED.

Sarah—"I thought marriage was a give-and-take proposition."

Samuel—"It is, but lately—Gladys has been giving me more than I can take."

Prices of Most Livestock Come Close To Effective Farm Parity on Average

The Fort Worth office of Agriculture Marketing Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture released their figures on "Average Farm Prices," "Effective Parity" and the per cent of parity on livestock and wool this week, according to Ted Gaudy, special market reporter for The Herald, in his weekly release. The release continues:

Beef cattle brought an average farm price of $15.40, and effective parity was $21.70, with per cent of parity 71. Calves brought $16.40, against parity of $23.70 or 69 per cent.

Hogs brought $15.20 against parity of $21.40 or 71 per cent of parity. Lambs brought $19.30 against parity a $23.80 or 81 per cent. Wool brought 41.4 cents per pound against parity of 61.4 cents or 67 per cent of parity.

June 15 per cent of parity was 72 per cent on cattle, calves were 71 per cent, hogs were 73 per cent, lambs were 88 per cent, and wool was 67 per cent. Thus, during the month cattle last one per cent, calves lost two per cent, hogs lost two per cent, lambs lost seven per cent, and wool held steady.

"It really opened my eyes on ways to lower my food bill"

"It all started a couple of months ago when I wanted that new hat so badly. Couldn't figure any way to get it out of my budget. Then I began to wonder if I was paying more for food than I needed to. Decided to check. And I really checked! Went about it very scientifically, I'll have you know.

"I listed all the foods I bought in a week's time. Then I put five columns to the right of the list so I could jot down the price of each item at each of the five stores that are fairly convenient for me to shop in.

"Believe me, I went to each one of those stores. I put down every price and totaled all prices for each store. It took me almost half a day to do it, but it was worth it."

Know what I found? And this will amaze you, as it did me! My total at Safeway was much less than at any of the other stores. Enough savings in a year, I figured, to pay for a new coat!

The secret lies in just a few pennies difference here and there, usually on items you don't see advertised. But those pennies really add up. And you should hear Steve rave about the meats I've been getting from Safeway. And was he ever impressed with my businesslike approach to my shopping.

Tell you what. I'm going down to Safeway now. Get your coat and come along. I'll show you how to save enough, in no time at all, for that blouse you've had your heart set on.

State Capitol NEWS

By Vern Sanford.

Manager, Texas Press Association

Austin.—Texas' critical teacher shortage and some reasons for it are spotlighted in two reports just released.

With school bells due to ring in a month, an estimated 7,615 teaching positions still are vacant in Texas, according to the Texas State Teachers Association. To fill these jobs only 1,310 teachers are known to be available.

This means six openings for each teacher wanting a job, said TSTA Executive Secretary Charles Tennyson. Almost 4,000 teachers left the profession last year.

Apparently explanation for this wholesale snobbing of classroom posts came in statistics reported by Dr. Hob Gray of the University of Texas Teacher Placement Bureau.

This year's education graduates will average $346 per month for nine months, said Dr. Gray. But the engineering science graduate can expect $431 per month all year.

Teachers with master's degrees do a little better, averaging $358 monthly. But a master's degree in engineering or science commands an average salary of $557.

Almost all university graduates go to schools paying more than state minimum requirements, said Dr. Gray. Highest school salaries in the state are at the West Texas oil town of Snyder. There the beginning minimum is $4,000 for nine months or $445 monthly.

Less affluent districts have to scramble. University graduates can be quite choosy since demands for their services are exceptionally high. Ratio of jobs to graduates is 10 to one in all positions. 100 to one in mathematics and science.

Texas' controversial right-to-work law has lost another round in the courts. But champions of the law say the issue is far from being finally settled.

By a six to three decision the State Supreme Court upheld a closed shop contract between unions and the Santa Fe Railway Company.

Texas law prohibits compulsory union membership, but a 1951 act of Congress authorized closed shops in the railway industry.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, who had intervened on behalf of Texas law, predicted a motion for rehearing after the court reconvenes October 3. "The full question of compulsory union membership is yet to be determined," said Shepperd. "Nor do I think the majority decision abrogates our right-to-work law."

Their decision, majority judges noted, paralleled a U. S. Supreme Court ruling in a similar case from Nebraska. Union shop contracts, said the Texas ruling, do not "compel full union membership but only payment of union dues and assessments."

Dissenting judges spoke out against "compulsory financial support of a private organization by those who do not subscribe to its program" as "the chief evil to be forever prohibited."

Plans to spend $229,000,000 on building new roads in 1957 have been outlined by the Texas Highway Department.

In addition, $35,000,000 will be spent on maintenance. Through the federal aid bill, Uncle Sam will absorb $117,000,000 of the $264,000,000 total tab.

Motors can look forward to smooth sailing on the roads planned under the new federal-state building program. Some 3,000 miles of modern expressways without cross traffic or railroad crossings are due in the near future, said State Highway Engineer DeWitt Greer. Many will be divided highways. Two-lane roads will be built so two more lanes can be added.

In anticipation of this flood of highway spending, road contractors are trying to get enough engineers and skilled laborers to do the work. Texas highway branch of Associated General Contractors is considering two plans.

One is to grant scholarships at engineering colleges. Another is to set up a training school on operation of machinery and heavy equipment at some university.

More integration in Texas public schools next year is predicted by the Texas Commission on Race Relations.

Austin headquarters of the anti-segregation commission said last week that 300,000 students in 71 districts attended wholly or partially integrated schools last year.

This meant that one in five of the state's 1,500,000 students and one in 26 school districts were affected. None of these was located in the eastern quarter of CAPITOL NEWS—GAL TWO—the state nor in the major cities of Houston, Waco, Dallas and Fort Worth.

Ninety negroes are expected to enroll with some 18,000 white students at the University of Texas this fall. Thirty will be freshmen who passed admission tests; 19 transfers from other colleges and about 40 returning graduate students.

This will be the first time for negroes to attend the university's under-graduate schools.

In April, Texas had too little

HE WASN'T SO DUMB.

The church was jammed for the wedding. After the ceremony there was a rush to kiss the bride. Finally she looked at one man and said:

polio vaccine for too many people. Today the problem is reversed.

Despite the State Health Department's continuing campaign for wider use, Texas turned back 90 per cent of its most recent vaccine allocation. Lack of demand was given as the reason.

In Austin the county polio chapter chairman suggested Salk shots be made compulsory for school entrance, just as smallpox and diphtheria vaccines. School board members promised to consider it at their meeting August 13.

Short Shorts.—Manufacturers will be asked to discontinue production of insecticides containing thallium sulphate, a State Health Department official reports. At least three children have died and dozens more have been hospitalized from thallium poisoning, said the announcement. . . . Texas will be asked to provide 687 men in September draft call, said State Selective Service headquarters. At the same time draft boards will be asked for 1,140 men to take pre-induction physical and mental examinations. . . . Lower Rio Grande Valley farmers have ginned 149,073 bales of cotton so far this year, compared with 138,915 for the same period in 1955, said the State Department of Agriculture. . . . Texas has won two more civil suits for recovery of veterans land funds. An Austin district court has just awarded the state judgments totaling $97,511. . . . E. C. Nelson, senior engineer assistant at the State Health Department, resigned last week to enter private business. He is the second engineer to leave the department within the past month.

The railroad president was looking sadly at exorbitant claims farmers had made for cattle killed by his trains. "It strikes me," he said, "that nothing improves the blood of American livestock like crossing it with a diesel locomotive."

FIRE DESTROYED TANKS—bearing white hot heat which burned 18 men to death and injured some 30 others was generated by an explosion and fire at this tank farm 12 miles northeast of Dumas. Remains of five huge petroleum storage tanks, two of them still burning here, may be seen in this picture by Lester Williams of The Amarillo Globe-Times.

An American couple sent a play-pen to a friend overseas on the arrival of her fourth child.

Baptist Men of District to Attend Lueders Meeting

Numbers of Hamlin Baptist men will be among the approximately 1,000 men of Baptist District 17 who are expected to attend the annual Brotherhood encampment at Lueders Baptist Encampment grounds Tuesday of next week.

The meeting opens at 3:00 p. m. and will conclude with the night service. Men are invited to attend any portion of the all-day camp that they can. Fish fry will be served in the cafeteria between 5:30 and 7:00 p. m. at $1 per plate.

Outstanding speaker will be Governor Raymond Gary of Oklahoma, who was in the state Brotherhood program in Houston last year. Governor Gary is a Baptist, has served as superintendent of Sunday School and chairman of deacons of his home church, served four years as a member of the board of trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University and is now a member of the board of trustees of the Oklahoma Baptist Convention.

Fred C. Hughes of Boerne, state Brotherhood president, will speak at 7:15 p. m., and Bryan Bradbury, Abilene attorney, will talk on "World Conditions and Christianity" at 3:55 p. m. Clifford Luddy of Abilene is president of District 17.

Other speakers will include

Doyle Woody Plans Run-Off Campaign

O. D. (Doyle) Woody asks The Herald to express to the voters of Jones County his sincere appreciation of the fine vote given him in his bid for the office of sheriff of Jones County.

"I will be in the run-off slated August 11, and will endeavor to see as many of the voters as I possibly can before that time," he declares.

OUT OF TURN.

The doctor rushed into the waiting room and called, "Come along, Mr. Smith, your bit of heaven has arrived—a beautiful girl."

At that moment a meek little man who had been sitting quietly in one corner of the room, timidly approached the doctor.

"If you don't mind, sir," he said, "I was next. I was sitting here for some time before this other gentleman arrived."

CHANGED OPINION.

"Isn't that your eye doctor?" "I thought he was until he sent me a bill. Now I know he is a skin specialist."

Rev. Byron Bryant of Stamford, encampment president; Rev. L. L. Trott of Abilene, district secretary; and Rev. C. A. Powell of Crowell. Joe Breed of Anson will recognize the guests.

Governor Gary is slated to fly in his private plane for the meeting.

TO THE CITIZENS AND VOTERS OF JONES COUNTY . . .

Thanks, folks, for the very good vote and support you gave me in last Saturday's primary election.

Sincerely,

Estimated Four From County to Be In August Draft

About four men from Jones County are slated to be called into service by the August draft call on the basis of the Texas allotment for August calling for 639 men, compared to 641 for July, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state selective service director, announced last week.

This is the state's share of a national call for 13,000 men, all for the Army.

At the same time, Colonel Schwartz announced an August call on approximately half the state's draft boards for 1,134 men to take pre-induction physical and mental examinations for future calls.

He said in his release to The Herald from Austin that the boards not receiving a quota for these examinations in August already had been called upon to furnish men for examination in July.

Local board calls for August induction and pre-induction examination were mailed from state selective service headquarters on July 3.

The August quota will be filled with men who are 22 years of age or older on July 1, with the exception of delinquents or volunteers, who may be younger.

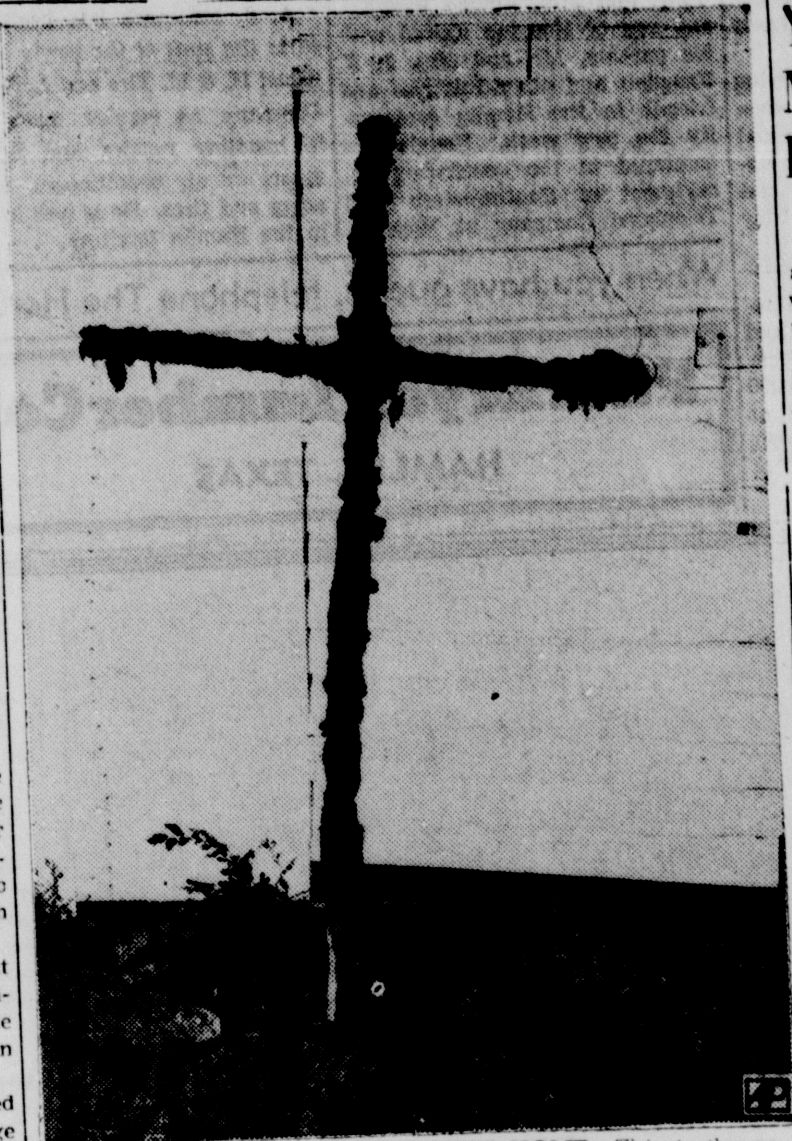

Colonel Schwartz said he expected the August call to be filled with volunteers and men without children. He said delinquents are liable first, but the boards do not have many delinquent men.

As in the past, the state selective service director warned young fathers they must advise their boards about children or an expected child.

"If a local board is not advised about the birth or expected birth of a child," Colonel Schwartz said, "the board naturally proceeds on the idea such a man is childless, and he is therefore ordered for service."

CHICKENS ARE PLENTIFUL

The August list of plentiful foods is topped by broilers and fryers. Turkey supplies make this old favorite another good buy for August. Large quantities of all grades of beef are also available.

CROSS BURNED AT RAYBURN'S HOME—This is the remains of a cross that was found burning on the front lawn of the home of House Speaker Sam Rayburn in Bonham. Rayburn was in Washington and his sister, who lives at the house, was at a country home near Bonham. No arrests have been made, but police said they are working on several leads.

REVERSE ACTION.

A very old man with a weak heart won 50,000 pounds in a football pool in England. His family, fearing that the glad news might prove fatal, called in the vicar to break it to him.

"Now, John," began the vicar cautiously, "supposing you were to win one of these big prizes—50,000 pounds, say—what would you do with it?"

The old man pondered. "Well, sir," he said, "to start with I'd give you half of it for the church."

The vicar fell dead!

QUITE ANNOYING.

A dashing young officer who had just graduated from England's military college was assigned to a remote base in one of the colonies.

As there were very few women at the base, the officer, more or less to keep in form, started flirting with the wife of the commanding officer every time they met. One day the CO stopped the young lieutenant on the parade grounds.

"See here, Jenkins," he demanded, "are you in love with my wife?"

"Oh, n-n-n-no, sir," stammered the embarrassed lieutenant. "Then stop making her think you are," exclaimed the CO. "It upsets her!"

Youth Revival at Methodist Church Begins Wednesday

Annual summer youth revival at the First Methodist Church will begin Wednesday night, August 8, and continue through Sunday, August 12, announces Rev. Darris L. Egger, pastor.

Rev. Weldon Crowley of Kerns, senior ministerial student at McMurry College in Abilene, will be the youth evangelist. Services will be daily at 7:30 p. m. The Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring the annual revival for the young people of the community.

Each evening beginning at 6:00 o'clock a fellowship hour will be conducted for an hour and a half. The youth will eat at the church and have a period of recreation. The fellowship hour will be climaxed by an "inspiration time." Each night will be a different emphasis.

In preparation for the youth revival the young people will meet at the church on Monday and Tuesday nights for a time of spiritual preparation, consisting of prayer time and Bible study. During the day visiting will be done by the youth in behalf of the revival.

Both young and old of the community have a warm and special invitation to attend, declares Egger. "You will hear spiritual preaching from a dedicated young minister."

SWINE PRICE RELIEF.

A drop of eight per cent in the nation's spring pig crop and an indicated reduction of seven per cent in the number of sows to farrow this fall promise some relief for swine prices, says John G. McHaney, extension economist.

Colored kodachrome slides of scenes in Colorado, Nevada, California, Wyoming, Utah and New Mexico were shown as the program feature of the regular Tuesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

The pictures were taken by Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Newberry on their tour of the Western states last summer. Newberry gave highlights of the scenes as the pictures were shown.

President Edgar Duncan announced that the sale of electric light bulbs last Saturday under sponsorship of the Lions Club netted $48.75 for the club's treasury. The Hamlin Boys Club also shared in the proceeds to the tune of $16.25.

Guests for the Tuesday luncheon included R. E. Perry of the Conoco plant west of Hamlin and Ray Christianson of Abilene.

SEED ALFALFA IN FALL.

Fall seeding is best for establishing alfalfa stands. A soil test will show what fertilizers are needed by this favorite forage crop. The seed bed should be firm, clean and moist and only certified seed should be planted, says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist.

Nazarene College Group Will Present Program Monday

Students from Bethany Nazarene College of Bethany, Oklahoma, will present an evening of inspiration and worship at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene Monday evening at 7:45, according to Rev. Donald M. Wellman, pastor. The public is invited.

Bethany College Quartet will present an hour of sacred music, including hymns, gospel songs and spirituals. Rev. Curtis Smith, field representative, will appear with them to represent the college.

"This ensemble has been traveling all through the Southwest states this summer in behalf of the college," Wellman says. "There is no admission charge, and it is only the desire of the local church that the citizens of Hamlin come for an evening of inspiration."

DADDY CAN FIX ANYTHING

The tremendous faith of a child in his father!

To the conscientious father it is frightening, indeed. And, to the conscientious mother, equally frightening is her child's trust in her.

It takes something more than love and good intentions to live up to the expectations of our children. We need a strength and wisdom and tenderness that do not come automatically with the responsibility of parenthood.

God provides, and the Church instills in our lives, the spiritual gifts which our parenthood requires. We were meant to cultivate these qualities, for with every challenge God offers us adequate resources.

And our children will grow as we grow in the Christian faith, for the most obvious truth in the world is that a child wants to be like his Mother and Dad.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL...

ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sharing the Road Goes Long Way to Making Motoring on Highways Safer

"Share the Road—arrive alive!" In those words E. C. McFadden of Dallas, president of the Texas Safety Association, this week urged all motorists to support the share-the-road program of the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council. This program is being conducted in cooperation with the slow-down-and-live program of the National Conference of State Safety Coordinators.

"To stay safe in traffic, the driver must be keenly aware that he is not the only one on the road," McFadden said. "He's just one of many drivers, so he must keep in step with the others and share the road with them."

He said this involves, first of all, a willingness to share, and then the skill and judgment to do the right thing at the right time.

He gave the following rules as a guide to drivers to help them fit their driving to the pattern of traffic around them:

1. Keep alert. Develop defensive driving. Study the road ahead for accident situations. The higher the speed, the farther ahead your attention must be fixed.

2. Think ahead. Plan emergency measures. Know your own and your car's capabilities. If the car ahead should suddenly block your lane, could you stop? Could you swerve to avoid an accident?

3. Be adaptable. Get the "feel" of the changing traffic, road and weather conditions. Adjust your speed immediately.

4. Pace yourself by the traffic around you. This includes noting traffic behind through constant use of your rear-view mirrors. Don't race. Don't lag. Don't ride the bumper of the car ahead.

5. Take only your share of the road—in the proper place. Keep in the proper lane. Pass only when you see you have ample time and space to avoid cutting out and in too sharply. Signal all turns and lane changes.

6. Obey to the letter all traffic laws, signs, signals and the dictates of common sense and courtesy. If you make a mistake, don't lose your head. Don't jeopardize yourself and others by hasty, foolishly sudden moves.

McFadden had a special word to say about safety on super-highways, pointing out that the higher speeds permissible on such roads make the above rules doubly important and vital. In addition, he said, this rule should be added: Watch signs carefully for rules governing the particular road you're traveling—such things as directions for entering or leaving the highway.

HOW YOU SEE IT.

"How much is the hotel bill?"

"It's $75."

"What, $75?"

"Yes, $40 for room and $35 for meals."

"Why $35 for meals? We didn't eat a meal here!"

"But I didn't kiss your wife."

BUSY TO THE END.

The efficiency expert died, and they were giving him a fancy funeral.

Six pallbearers were carrying the casket out of the church when suddenly the lid popped open and the efficiency expert sat bolt upright and shouted, "If you'd put this thing on wheels you could lay off four men."

The new association, which replaces the 38-year-old Roby and Sweetwater NFLA, has 486 stockholders with a total of $1,840,000 in loans. It has a surplus of $121,700 and reserves of $124,000, with total assets in excess of $425,000.

How Much Does It Cost You

when your neighbors

go out of town to buy?

We may think . . . when one of our neighbors buys a shirt, or a car, or a hot water bottle in the city . . . that it's nothing to us . . . unless we happen to be trying to make a living in the shirt, or car, or hot water bottle business here in this community.

But . . . as a matter of fact . . . every time a dollar leaks out of local circulation, it hurts everybody who lives around here.

Because . . . financial anemia is a very contagious disease. Trade volume . . . the lifeblood of every community . . . when drained off to invigorate some other place . . . leaves us weaker, our schools and churches poorer, job opportunities fewer, our own businesses less profitable, our property worth less, our living standards lower, and important help and services less convenient to us.

On the other hand . . . Prosperity is also contagious.

Every single dollar that stays here at home turns over again and again as long as it's here . . . to account for two, three, or more times it's value in increased local trade volume . . . to keep every single one of us in better economic health.

★Being a column in which the publisher just "blows off the steam".

By June Jones

AFTER SOME nine years of operating this column we are this week relinquishing it to a guy who has been working on a newspaper for nearly 40 years—our Pop. Whether he is capable of maintaining its high standard of literary character is a problematical chance that will have to be taken by us and both of our readers.

The junior partner in The Herald is moving a portion of the Herald equipment, and buying additional pieces, and establishing a commercial printing plant in Abilene, where much of our printing business in recent years has originated.

In saying "adios" to the paper and the people of Hamlin community who have been so patient and courteous and loyal to us for the past 10 years, my family and I will cherish many fond memories—and some sad and disappointing ones.

In our move to Abilene we feel that our abilities and services will find wider reception. With thousands of dollars worth of equipment placed at Hamlin, far above that of the average small town printing plant, we have been disappointed at the patronage by the community accorded us. We already are assured of a good business with firms we have been serving in the recent past.

Without seeming "preachified" we would admonish the people of Hamlin and community to support their printing office and newspaper more loyally. In fact, that same spirit of disloyalty is likely to cause other businesses to move or close up in Hamlin we are afraid.

We have worked hard in a quiet sort of way to help make Hamlin a better place in which to live. We've spent our means here, have tried to boost and not criticize every progressive move for our community.

We will continue to live in our home here until housing can be arranged for in Abilene. As we sever our relationships with the paper we wish for Hamlin and its people success, harmony and good health. Thanks for everything—June, Louise, Dubby and Mike.

Bids Called for on Hamlin-to-Aspermont Highway Project

Commission Lost No Time in Plans For Area Work

Texas Highway Commission has lost no time in getting underway with the highway building and repairing program scheduled in the Hamlin territory for the next two years, once the federal assistance money was made available by recent action in Washington.

This week bids are being called for on the 19.81-mile stretch of Highway 83 from Hamlin to Aspermont, which will be widened and otherwise improved; and surveyors are working on the 21-mile stretch of Highway 94 from Hamlin to Tuxedo.

These two projects, along with two farm-to-market highway jobs in the area are part of a major highway improvement program planned by the highway department for the next biennium in cooperation with the federal government. More than $4,620,000 has been allotted to the Abilene district of the highway department.

The call for bids on the Aspermont stretch propose widening of the right-of-way and highway surface, straightening in several segments, leveling of roadway, widened and improved drainage structures and resurfacing of the entire 19.81-mile stretch.

The Highway 94 segment from Hamlin to Tuxedo east, bids for which should be called probably this fall, will include widening of right-of-way, more new drainage structures, rebuilding of entire highway roadbed and resurfacing.

The two farm-to-market projects are resurfacing of Highway 1636 south of Hamlin; and construction of a new segment from Lawlis Flat toward Sylvester.

City-Wide Mosquito Fogging Move Begun

Campaign against mosquitoes that have recently invaded the Hamlin territory was started last week by the City of Hamlin with spray fogging under the direction of Bill Rountree.

Although generally the dry weather has kept the insect population down, recent showers have left standing water in cans, low places and around air conditioners have implemented their breeding.

Baptist Young People Plan Picnic at River

Young people of the community will have a picnic and outing at the Brazos River bridge, north of Hamlin, Saturday evening under auspices of the youth of the First Baptist Church, according to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wiggins, sponsors.

Youth of the church and their friends will meet at the church at 7:00 o'clock and go in a group to the picnic spot. Attendees are asked to bring as many sandwiches as they can eat, and 30 cents for drinks and potato chips.

EVANGELIST for a series of revival services beginning August 10 at the North Central Avenue Baptist Church will be Rev. T. W. Teel, pastor of the First Baptist Church at Blackwell. Services are scheduled at 10:00 a. m. and 8:00 p. m., according to Rev. Woodrow McHugh, pastor.

June Jones Installs Abilene Printing Shop

After a little more than 10 years in Hamlin, during which time he has been publisher of The Herald, June Jones has moved with his family to Abilene, where he has established a printing plant at 532 South 11th Street in Southeast Abilene.

The family will continue to live at their home in South Hamlin until housing arrangements in Abilene can be arranged.

The Herald will continue to operate under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Jones, parents of the former publisher.

Young Ministers To Direct Hitson Revival Services

Three young Baptist ministers will be featured in revival services that begin Friday night at Hitson Baptist Church, six miles northwest of Hamlin, according to the pastor, Rev. R. A. Guthrie.

Services will be held each weekday morning at 11:00 o'clock except Saturday, and evening preaching will begin each evening at 8:00 o'clock. Prayers services also are scheduled at 7:30 each evening.

Rev. Guthrie will preach the first three days. Beginning Monday, Dr. Albert Lunday, pastor of Ovalo Baptist Church and professor of sociology at Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene will preach the remainder of the revival. Rev. Doyle Combs, pastor of Wastalia Baptist Church, north of Roscoe, will direct the song services.

Pastor Guthrie and his congregation invite the public to attend the series of services.

Western Union Office Moved to Shoe Shop

Location of the Western Union telegraph office in the Hamlin Shoe Service building was completed this week by company representatives. The office formerly had been located at the Hamlin Flower Shop.

Mrs. Bud Waldon is the new operator of the wire service, next door north of The Herald.

Run-Off in Sheriff's Race Set by Election

Reves and Woody To Vie for Office In August Vote

Race for Jones County sheriff, the major contested race involved in county voting last Saturday, remained undecided after tabulation to ballots cast in spirited voting. The incumbent, Dave Reves, and O. D. (Doyle) Woody will go into a run-off election on August 11.

Reves, serving his second term, tallied 2,108 votes, lacking 193 of getting a majority over his two opponents, Woody and E. M. (Roe) Isbell. Woody received 1,236 and Isbell 1,066 votes.

In the other two contested races, both for precinct offices, Lem Ruark was reelected county commissioner of Precinct 3. He received 467 votes to 245 for Eldridge Nix.

Wylie Hughes was named constable of Precinct 2 (Lueders, Avoca, Stamford) over Max McFadden. Hughes tallied 918 votes to 545 for McFadden.

Methodist Men Will Go to Area Assembly At Ceta Canyon Site

Five men from the First Methodist Church were planning to attend the Northwest Texas Methodist Conference for laymen beginning Friday morning at Ceta Canyon Methodist Assembly near Happy. Scheduled to make the trip are L. H. McBride, Joe Culbertson, Willard Maberry, E. C. Feagan, Art Newcombe and possibly others. The assembly, the tenth annual retreat, is sponsored by the conference board of lay activities, headed by Ray H. Nichols of Vernon.

Featured speakers will be Dr. J. Chess Lovern of Lubbock, Dr. Edwin A. Briggs of Chicago, Illinois, and Dr. J. Albert Gatlin of Paragould, Arkansas.

Activities get underway Friday at 7:30 o'clock and continue until Sunday afternoon.

County Included in Emergency Program

By special legislation passed in Washington Tuesday, Jones County was included within the fourth emergency feed program of the government, according to a telegram to The Herald from Congressman Omar Durleau.

Under this special provision Durleau advises farmers and ranchers of the county will be permitted to graze the acreage reserves included in the recent oil bank program.

DUE TO SING MONDAY NIGHT at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene is the Bethany Nazarene College Quartet (above) from Bethany, Oklahoma. An hour-long program of hymns, gospel songs and spirituals is being presented. The public is invited to attend the program at 7:45 o'clock.

Mail Service Not To Be Penalized

Hamlin area will not be made to suffer materially in mail service if certain railroad carrying services are changed, declares J. N. McKean, special assistant postmaster general at Washington, D. C., in a letter to editor of The Herald.

The letter was written following Kean's receipt of issues of The Herald in which it was stated that curtailed mail service for the Hamlin section had been proposed.

The complete text of the letter follows: I have just read the editorial, "Curtailed of Train Mail Service Proposed," in the July 12 issue of your newspaper.

DePriest School Will Open Term August 13

Following a plan inaugurated several years ago, the DePriest Colored School in Hamlin will begin the 1956-57 term on Monday, August 13, according to word from E. S. Morgan, principal, who is taking work on his doctor of education degree at the University of California in Los Angeles.

The early opening schedule has been practiced for a number of years in order to give the children some time to help their parents during the harvest season.

With recent improvements in facilities at DePriest School, this is expected to be one of the best years at DePriest, Morgan declares.

Daniel in First Spot in Governor Race in County

True to previous balloting, the voters of Jones County did not follow the pattern of state-wide voting in Saturday's primary election for state offices, however, they did give a lead to Price Daniel in his bid for the governorship of Texas.

W. Lee O'Daniel was second man in Jones County voting, and Ralph Yarborough, who was third in the county, was second in rank in the state.

John Lee Smith was given a lead in Jones County for lieutenant governor, whereas Ben Ramsey, incumbent, led the state vote. Ramsey will go into a run-off with Senator A. M. Alkin Jr. Will Wilson and Tom Moore will go into a run-off for attorney general. Wilson tied the ticket in Jones County and state-wide.

New Warehouse at Compress Going Up

Foundation has been run for a new concrete and sheet steel warehouse at the Western Compress & Storage Company plant in Northeast Hamlin, according to R. H. McCurdy, manager.

The 80x352-foot building will provide storage for about 6,500 bales of compressed cotton, McCurdy says.

Med Carter, local contractor, is supervising the work.

THINK FARM BURNS—This is a view of the McKee plant of the Shamrock Oil & Gas Corporation at Dumas, after an explosion set fire to storage tanks. Shown are three of the metal tanks which were melted to the ground in the fire. The explosion and fire were believed caused when a valve on a pentant tank jammed.

MAKE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT SELF-PAYING

Considerable talk has been underway over the country about the deficit operations of various departments of the government, particularly the Post Office Department. We here in the Hamlin territory may think that the matter is really none of our business. But, after all, we are part of the government, and definitely we can have our opinions—and even make them heard and felt.

When we go to the post office to mail a letter or package or postcard, we shouldn't expect even our government to lose money on the transaction. Our interest should be that our government be operated on a sound, business-like basis. Certainly it would be cheaper for all the users of the postal services to make them self-supporting rather than for the nation to borrow huge sums of money, or raise the sums by further taxation than to have to pay interest on a lame duck proposition.

A short time ago Postmaster General Summerfield made a statement endorsing in unqualified terms a resolution adopted by the U. S. Chamber of Commerce. This resolution urged that postal rates be increased sufficiently to place the postal system "on a non-profit, self-supporting basis." It further said: "Postal rates, and charges for special services, should be set at levels which yield the Post Office Department total revenue equal to total expenditures. Rates on fourth class mail should at all times yield the Post Office Department revenues sufficient to cover the full cost of the service." Parcel post falls into the fourth class mail classification.

Another paragraph of the resolution said: "Cost of services performed for the Post Office by other government agencies should be added to postal costs, and services performed for other government agencies by the post office should be deducted from postal costs. The postal service should be conducted according to the highest standards of efficiency in either business or government, and constant efforts should be made to improve the service in the interests of the public."

What this amounts to is that fine people who use the postal service in any of its branches should pay the actual costs of carrying on that service. It's difficult to see how there can be any logical argument in opposition.

The Record Speaks

Germany—a country which was ravaged by war, suffered total defeat, and has since been a bedeviled sector of the cold war—can teach the United States some lessons as to the value of free enterprise.

Germany's post-war economic recovery is almost universally described as miraculous. That miracle, as William Henry Chamberlain explains in a book review appearing in The National Republic, is one of the most compelling arguments "for the dynamic effectiveness of capitalism, without 'but,' 'whereas' and 'on the other hands.'" He adds: "The men who directed economic policy . . . believed passionately in free enterprise, competition, free international trade and investment."

By contrast, those European nations—including victorious nations—which deserted these principles in favor of some form of paternalistic state have suffered one economic crisis after another, coupled with all manner of political crises.

The record speaks for itself.

Two-Way Obligation

The president of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States recently said business men have both the obligation and the right to speak on political and other issues of the times. He then mentioned certain things which business men should be solidly against—among them government in business and high taxes.

This is a logical position. At the same time business men must realize that what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. If, as they should, they oppose costly special favors for other groups, they should be as adamant in opposing special favors for themselves. Business group have often and deservedly lost public regard because they have supported proposals for government spending that would benefit them—while urging strict economy when it came to the other fellow.

Working for Government

The best way to judge the scope of the tax burden is by how much of your working time goes to pay for it.

In 1929, one day's labor out of 10 went to support the government, according to the National Association of Manufacturers. Now the average is one day in four.

What will the figure be 15 years or so from now?

Power in a Sentence

Governor Elmo Smith of Oregon, in discussing a proposed tax program, covered a problem of national scope in this single sentence: "Too many people think in the back of their minds that a tax is something someone else should pay, and a service is something they should receive."

Individuals and groups and organizations of every kind are trying to pay as little in taxes as possible—and, at the same time, trying to get as much special privilege from government as possible.

So long as that attitude prevails we will have wasteful, exorbitantly expensive government—along with a dangerous degree of political domination of our lives and pursuits.

New Glory for the Ads

The following advertisement, "Wanted—A general soaking rain. Please rush—Cliff Perkins," appeared in the West Branch, Iowa, Times (Herbert Hoover's birthplace) on April 26. The paper went into the mail about 8:00 o'clock in the morning. By supper-time the rain came and brought an end to an eight-month dry spell.

It is estimated this advertisement was worth millions to the residents of Cedar County and the state of Iowa. You don't have to argue with Cliff Perkins and his friends on the power of the country press.

Editorial of the Week

FARMING A NEW WAY

At home farmers are doing their farming in the courthouses. The soil bank policy is being put into gear.

Here is how it works in Iowa, where farmers take in two billion dollars annually from the sale of products. A farmer puts 36 acres of a 1,200-acre farm in the soil bank. He has only 36 acres of pasture land. Cattle are removed from the pasture until January 1 for which the farmer will receive $1,000. He then can restock or go back to the courthouse and make another wacky deal.

Another man has 97 acres of corn. The soil bank will pay him $4,268 to plow it under. Or if he likes he can harvest the corn and cancel his agreement with the government, if it rains and a good crop is made.

Soil bank payments in Iowa alone may run to twenty or twenty-five million dollars. A fine example of Washington's brilliant planning. Just do something. Make it complicated and expensive! Put more people on the government payroll. Raise taxes and devise foolish plans to give it away!—The Graham Newsfoto.

RECALLING Other Years

☆ Being news items taken from old files of Your Home - Town Newspaper - The Herald.

TWENTY YEARS AGO.

News notes of interest in the Hamlin community 20 years ago included the following, reprinted from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 31, 1936:

Tom Teague, W. E. Benson and Ted Russell went to Dallas Sunday and saw the Centennial, and back over to Fort Worth Monday to the Frontier. Ask them what they saw.

Men's shoes are priced in the Strauss Dry Goods Company advertisement at $1.98 and $2.98 per pair.

Mrs. Carl Greenway, Elva and Lee and daughter, Mrs. Coleman Gibbons, left Monday to take in the Dallas and Fort Worth Centennials.

W. C. Hamric, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Elkins, was mysteriously slugged Monday morning when he went to stake out his cow in South Hamlin. Taken to an Abilene hospital, he remained unconscious until Wednesday. He remembers little of what happened.

James V. Alfred apparently has been elected governor in Saturday's election. A run-off between Clyde Garrett and Thomas L. Blanton, incumbent, is slated.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carter of Wolfe City are spending the week with their brother, W. J. Carter, and family.

TEN YEARS AGO.

Among goings-on in the Hamlin community 10 years ago were the following, as recorded in the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 2, 1946:

William Blanton of Albany and Omar Burleson of Anson are slated to go into a run-off for the post of Congress from the 17th District following Saturday's election in which six others were eliminated. Bill Dunwoody defeated two opponents for sheriff, Herb Rowland was named county clerk over the incumbent Mrs. Oma Spraberry; Bill Armstrong was ousted as county treasurer by Gene Spurgin Jr.; and in the Hamlin precinct commissioner's race Ralph Riddle, incumbent, was defeated by Roy Brown.

Hopes for a good maize crop in the Hamlin section this season is fading with continued dry weather. Cotton is hoding up fairly well.

Hilton and Flat Top communities have petitioned the Hamlin Consolidated Independent School District for consolidation with the Hamlin district. Six other adjoining districts have recently been merged with the Hamlin district.

FIVE YEARS AGO.

Among happenings of the Hamlin community five years ago were the following, reproduced in brief from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated August 3, 1951:

More than $3,000 had been raised by the Hamlin Chamber of Commerce by Wednesday to construct and maintain a migratory labor camp for cotton pickers, according to Carl Murrell, CC president. An open-front fire-proof structure will be built one block west of the Santa Fe depot on city property.

McBride & Johnson elevator bought the first load of 1951 maize Wednesday afternoon. It was harvested off the L. O. Bowen farm, five miles northwest of Hamlin.

Fall football practice has been set by Coach Jess Burditt to begin August 27, it is announced. A strenuous schedule of football game is on the Ped Piper slate, and the coaches are hopeful that they will have material for a winning crew this year.

ONE YEAR AGO.

News items in the Hamlin community of one year ago included the following, condensed from the issue of The Hamlin Herald dated July 29, 1955:

Seventy-five boys of the Northern District of the Chisholm Trail Council of Boy Scouts were here Sunday to participate in an invitational swimming tournament at the new swimming pool in the Hamlin City Park.

Better facilities are being offered golfers and other members of the Lakeview Golf Club since completion of new additions to the club house and improvements on the greens and fairways of the nine-hole golf course.

Adjusted increases in telephone rates for Hamlin were allowed the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company by the City Council after the group heard officials of the phone concern at council meeting Tuesday evening. The new rates will become effective with February 1 billings.

are responsible for the movement of mail in that area are also men who are familiar with the handling of mail for your region, and I am sure the regional director of the Post Office Department at Dallas would be glad to furnish you schedules of any proposed changes, when or if they are made, and explain the advantages of such changes.

The editorial says your informant believes that service in your community should not be made to suffer in order to foot the bill for someone else's better service only because of their more fortunate location with respect to air fields.

However, with reference to the experiment of flying three-cent air mail on a non-priority space available basis, the department has substantially improved service in the areas in which the experiment has been conducted without added cost.

It has always been Post Office Department policy to utilize the speediest available means of transportation. The department must therefore, take fullest advantage of the new developments in air and highway transport.

You refer to the "pretext" for the proposed change "under the guise of economy."

In making changes in transportation, the department is definitely committed to economy as well as service improvement. You, as a taxpayer, would insist on such a policy. In pursuance of that policy, the total sum paid out to carriers for postal transportation was reduced from some $421,000,000 in fiscal 1953 to $378,000,000 in fiscal 1955 even though the volume of mail increased.

Actually, you and your readers are, we believe, principally concerned with having your mail delivered to and from Hamlin as fast as possible and not necessarily with how it is done, whether by truck or train as long as the service is dependable.

Any recommendations made for a change in transportation media would be based on such factors.

I am sure you are interested in the real facts of this case and I can assure you they are, or will be, available to you if such a proposal is made.

Jones County 4-H Club Boys Attend Six-County Camp

Jones County 4-H Club boys attended the annual Six-County 4-H Club Camp at Lake Cisco last week, according to Bill Lehmburg, county agent. In all, 35 boys and eight adults attended.

While at camp the boys participated in swimming, horse, shoes and washer pitching, track events, tug-of-war contests, miniature golf, and skating. In the various contests Jones County boys placed third or higher in all events.

Adults who attended included Birger Haterius of the Ericksdahl club; Woodrow Bagley, J. W. Black and Howard Roberts of the Anson club; J. A. Ham of the Lueders club; H. E. Whitworth of the Avoca club; and E. R. Vinson of the Hawley club.

Juan Rodriguez Cabrillo, Spanish explorer, was probably the first white man to see California, in 1542.

why "do it yourself"
when electricity's
so cheap?

Electric saws and drills and other power tools can save you hours of work on a single project. And dozens of other electric servants—like washers, dryers and dishwashers—save work and worry for other members of your family.

Go upstairs, go downstairs, go all around your house and look at the ways electricity is working for you. Then think of the low price: just a few cents a day.

What else in your family budget does so much, costs so little?

Dan Kralis, Loser in Congress Race, Says He Will run Again in Two Years

Dan Kralis, Abilene oil man defeated Saturday in his race against U. S. Representative Omar Burleson of Anson for the Democratic nomination for 17th District congressman, Monday attributed that loss to a "vicious character assassination whispering campaign," and said he will run against Burleson again in 1958.

Full text of his telegram from Houston to Howard McMahon publisher of The Abilene Reporter News, follows:

"I congratulate Mr. Burleson on his sixth term. It has been determined that my defeat largely can be attributed to a vicious character assassination whispering campaigned that was coldly calculated and organized by a special element in Abilene and carried to every town and village in the district by unique means.

"Since I pledged to the public I would not wage a mud slinging campaign, I chose to ignore the vicious slander that was carried by word of mouth and hoped the voters would, too. This was a serious mistake in my political strategy, and I was so advised by Tom Blanton Sr. and other great Democratic leaders in the district over a month ago.

"I will not make this same mistake when I run again against Burleson in 1958. My campaign will be fully organized with no holds barred, and this time the public will be fully informed with names, places and dates, and in particular about the whispering campaign of 1956. I want to believe Mr. Burleson was not part and parcel of this smear technique.

"My inexperience in politics led me to believe that an honest, sincere man could run for public office without fear of sneers from a particular element whose business is not politics. This was a very costly mistake."

VETERAN QUESTIONS

The questions and answers below about veteran problems are carried as a service to present and former service connected personnel by The Herald. Material for this column is supplied by the area office of the Veterans Administration at Lubbock.

Question.—Premiums on my World War II GI term insurance policy are being waived because I have been totally disabled for more than six months. While any policy is under waiver do I have the right to convert it to a permanent plan of insurance?

Answer.—You may convert your GI term policy to any permanent plan other than an endowment. You will not be required to take a physical examination.

Q.—My three-year deadline for starting Korean GI training will come in about six months. However, I recently enlisted in the armed forces, and I will be on active duty when that date comes around. Will I be able to start my training after I get out of service?

A.—No. Under the law, a veteran must begin Korean GI training within three years from the date of his first discharge. The law has not made any exceptions for veterans in service on their deadline dates.

Q.—May a veteran join with a non-veteran in obtaining a GI business loan?

A.—Yes, but the amount of the loan on which VA's guaranty is based will be in proportion to the veteran's interest in the loan. The guaranty cannot extend to any portion of the loan constituting the non-veteran's contribution to the enterprise.

Q.—What type of farm must a veteran have in order to qualify for farm training under the Korean GI bill?

A.—The basic activity of the farm must be the cultivation of the land or the feeding, breeding and management of livestock or poultry. Or it may be any other specialized farming commonly followed in the area. It may not be the processing, distribution or sale of agriculture products, such as a dairy processing plant or a grain elevator.

Swimming Classes For Ladies Scheduled At Pool at City Park

Crowds at the Hamlin swimming pool are continuing even to late summer, reports Jess Parrish, pool manager.

Addition of a ladies' swimming class has caused the adult participation to rise during the past two weeks. A special session for ladies is being held each Wednesday and Friday mornings. Each of these mornings will be set aside for ladies and their children, from 10:00 to 11:30 a. m. It is hoped, Parrish said, that this session will answer the demand for those ladies who are just learning to swim and also interest those who do not prefer mixed swimming.

Approximately 75 Cub Scouts are enjoying the facilities of the local pool during their three-day camporee which is being held this week.

MCCOYS HAVE GUESTS.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McCoy the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Morrison and daughter, Machell, of San Francisco, California. His mother, Mrs. Rade Morrison of Whittier, California, accompanied them to Texas and visited relatives in Sweetwater and Abilene. The Morrisons formerly lived in Hamlin.

Total Business in Texas First Half of Year Best Ever

While continued drought in the Hamlin area has affected business considerably, the total business in Texas enjoyed the best six months ever recorded during the first half of 1956, despite some weak spots in the economy, the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research reports in a release to The Herald.

The increase in business volume for this year however, has not been as great as in some other years, the bureau explains. Retail sales and some types of building decreased.

The largest decline was shown in building permits issued, but that decline was concentrated in the residential category. Non-residential building, which includes industrial, commercial, institutional, public utility and public building, increased 23 per cent over the first half of 1955.

The only other component of the bureau's index of business activity that declined between the first half of 1955 and the like period in 1956 was retail sales. Sales of non-durable goods, however, were two per cent higher.

EXPLOSION SITE—This map locates the Texas Panhandle town of Dumas, where an oil storage tank at the Shamrock McKee refinery exploded.

Consumer income continued to rise during the first half of 1956. Industrial building increased 58 per cent; industrial electrical power consumption rose 19 per cent, and total electrical power consumption increased 16 per cent.

Cake and iced tea were served to the following members: Mmes. Lucy Carothers, Charlene Joiner, Alice Westmoreland, Viva Joiner, Fayrene Weaver, Inez McCoy and Mildred Weaver.

Next regular meeting of the Good Neighbor club will be September 11. The program will be the election of officers for the ensuing year.

MAKE THEMSELVES HEARD.
At a Mormon wedding in the days of polygamy, the preacher was a bit hard of hearing and had some difficulty in getting the proper responses.

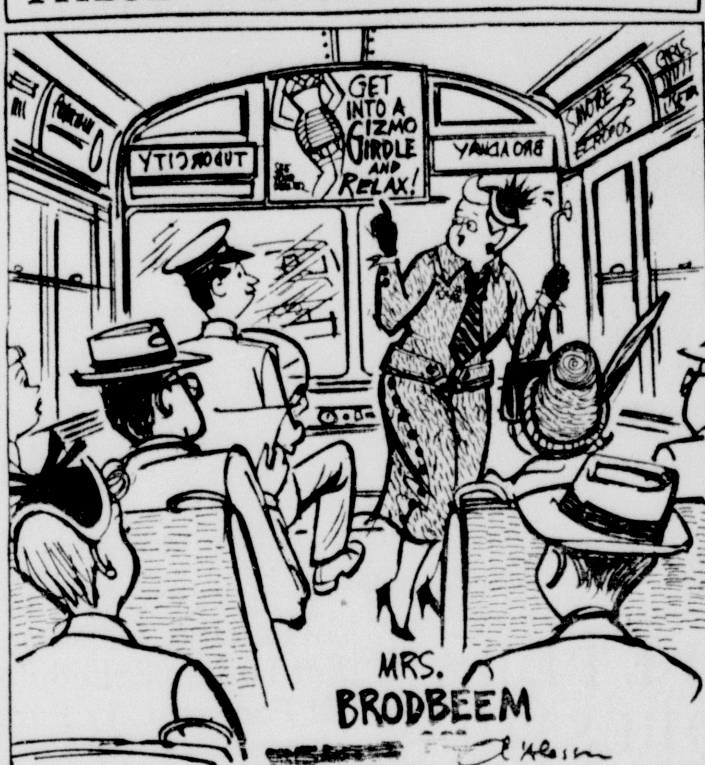

"Do you take these women to be your lawfully wedded wives?" "I do," replied the groom. "Do you take this man to be your lawfully wedded husband?" he asked the women. There was a faint chorus of "I do."

The minister glared. "Some of you girls in the back row will have to speak louder if you want to get in on this."

MUCH TOO ONE-SIDED.
Sarah—"I thought marriage was a give-and-take proposition." Samuel—"It is, but—lately—Gladys has been giving me more than I can take."

Next meeting of the YWA will be August 8 in the home of Pauline Mayfield.

TOWEL TIPS.

Bath towels are either double or single looped, easily determined by inserting a slender-pointed object into a pile and rasing it up from the towel slightly. Double loops usually offer better moisture absorption.

Prices of Most Livestock Come Close To Effective Farm Parity on Average

The Fort Worth office of Agriculture Marketing Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture released their figures on "Average Farm Prices," "Effective Parity" and the per cent of parity on livestock and wool this week, according to Ted Gouldy, special market reporter for The Herald in his weekly release. The release continues:

Beef cattle brought an average farm price of $15.40, and effective parity was $21.70, with per cent of parity 71. Cows brought $16.40, against parity of $23.70 or 69 per cent.

Hogs brought $15.20 against parity of $21.40 or 71 per cent of parity. Lambs brought $19.30 against parity of $23.80 or 81 per cent. Wool brought 41.4 cents per pound against parity of 61.4 cents or 67 per cent of parity.

June 15 per cent of parity was 72 per cent on cattle, calves were 71 per cent, hogs were 73 per cent, lambs were 88 per cent, and wool was 67 per cent. Thus, during the month cattle lost one per cent, calves lost two per cent, hogs lost two per cent, lambs lost seven per cent, and wool held steady.

At Fort Worth Monday the trade in stockers and feeders with quality was again strong in the cattle and calf divisions. Slaughter steers and yearlings were steady, and slaughter calves were steady to weak. Cows and bulls were weaker.

Comparative prices included: Good and choice slaughter steers and yearlings netted $16.50 to $21.50; common and medium kinds, $10 to $16.50; fat cows $9.50 to $11.50; and canners and cutters, $6 to $9.50; bulls, $9 to $12.50, odd head $13.

Good and choice slaughter calves sold from $15 to $17.50 some fancy around 600 pounds to $18. Lighter weights under 400 pounds stopped around $16; plain and medium butcher calves $11 to $14; and cull and common kinds, $8 to $11.

Stocker steer calves of good and choice quality brought $16 to $19.50, and heifers $17 down. Steer yearlings sold from $18 down.

Good and choice fat lambs topped at $20 to $22 at Fort Worth Monday, the best performance in some weeks for the class. Medium and lower grades sold from $12 to $17. Stockers and feeders were quoted from $12.50 to $16. Slaughter yearlings sold from $17 down.

Wethers sold mostly from $8 to $12.50, some choice old wethers and two-year-olds to $13.50. Slaughter ewes drew $4.50 to $5.50.

Top hogs sold at $16.75 to $17 at Fort Worth Monday and this was 25 to 50 cents above the previous week's close. Other hogs of less desirable weights and quality sold from $13 to $16.50. Sows cashed at $12 to $14. Stags sold from $5 to $8.

The 1956 lamb crop was estimated by the U. S. Department of Agriculture Crop Reporting Board this week at 20,428,000 head—an increase of one percentage point over 1955. This is still one per cent below the 10-year average.

Texas' crop showed a decrease of five per cent. Texas, the leading sheep producer, showed four per cent fewer ewes on farms and ranches than a year earlier.

Texas accounted for 13 per cent of the nation's lamb crop this year and 21 per cent of the Western states crop.

State Capital NEWS

By Vern Sanford,
Manager, Texas Press Association

Austin—Texas' critical teacher shortage and some reasons for it are spotlighted in two reports just released.

With school bells due to ring in a month, an estimated 7,615 teaching positions still are vacant in Texas, according to the Texas State Teachers Association. To fill these jobs only 1,310 teachers are known to be available.

This means six openings for each teacher wanting a job, said TSTA Executive Secretary Charles Tennyson. Almost 4,000 teachers left the profession last year.

Apparently explanation for this wholesale snobbing of classroom posts came in statistics reported by Dr. Hob Gray of the University of Texas Teacher Placement Bureau.

This year's education graduates will average $346 per month for nine months, said Dr. Gray. But the engineering science graduate can expect $431 per month all year.

Teachers with master's degrees do a little better, averaging $358 monthly. But a master's degree in engineering or science commands an average salary of $357.

Almost all university graduates go to schools paying more than state minimum requirements, said Dr. Gray. Highest school salaries in the state are at the West Texas oil town of Snyder. There the beginning minimum is $4,000 for nine months or $445 monthly.

Less affluent districts have to scramble. University graduates can be quite choosy since demands for their services are exceptionally high. Ratio of jobs to graduates is 10 to one in all positions. 100 to one in mathematics and science.

Texas' controversial right-to-work law has lost another round in the courts. But champions of the law say the issue is far from being finally settled.

By a six to three decision the State Supreme Court upheld a closed shop contract between unions and the Santa Fe Railway Company.

Texas law prohibits compulsory union membership, but a 1951 act of Congress authorized closed shops in the railway industry.

Attorney General John Ben Shepperd, who had intervened on behalf of Texas law, predicted a motion for rehearing after the court reconvenes October 3. "The full question of compulsory union membership is yet to be determined," said Shepperd. "Nor do I think the majority decision abrogates our right-to-work law."

Their decision, majority judges noted, paralleled a U. S. Supreme Court ruling in a similar case from Nebraska. Union shop contracts, said the Texas ruling, do not "compel full union membership but only payment of union dues and assessments."

Dissenting judges spoke out against "compulsory financial support of a private organization by those who do not subscribe to its program" as "the chief evil to be forever prohibited."

Plans to spend $229,000,000 on building new roads in 1957 have been outlined by the Texas Highway Department.

In addition, $35,000,000 will be spent on maintenance. Through the federal aid bill, Uncle Sam will absorb $117,000,000 of the $264,000,000 total tab.

Motors can look forward to smooth sailing on the roads planned under the new federal-state building program. Some 3,000 miles of modern expressways without cross traffic or railroad crossings are due in the near future, said State Highway Engineer De Witt Greer. Many will be divided highways. Two-lane roads will be built so two more lanes can be added.

In anticipation of this flood of highway spending, road contractors are trying to get enough engineers and skilled laborers to do the work. Texas highway branch of Associated General Contractors is considering two plans.

One is to grant scholarships at engineering colleges. Another is to set up a training school on operation of machinery and heavy equipment at some university.

More integration in Texas public schools next year is predicted by the Texas Commission on Race Relations.

Austin headquarters of the anti-segregation commission said last week that 300,000 students in 71 districts attended wholly or partially integrated schools last year.

This meant that one in five of the state's 1,500,000 students and one in 26 school districts were affected. None of these was located in the eastern quarter of CAPOTOL NEWS—GAL TWO—the state nor in the major cities of Houston, Waco, Dallas and Fort Worth.

Ninety negroes are expected to enroll with some 18,000 white students at the University of Texas this fall. Thirty will be freshmen who passed admission tests; 19 transfers from other colleges and about 40 returning graduate students.

This will be the first time for negroes to attend the university's under-graduate schools.

In April, Texas had too little

HE WASN'T SO DUMB.

The church was jammed for the wedding. After the ceremony there was a rush to kiss the bride. Finally she looked at one man and said:

"I don't know you. Why are you kissing me?"

"I dunno, lady," he answered. "When I joined the line outside I thought it was for hamburger."

polio vaccine for too many people. Today the problem is reversed.

Despite the State Health Department's continuing campaign for wider use, Texas turned back 90 per cent of its most recent vaccine allocation. Lack of demand was given as the reason.

In Austin the county chapter chairman suggested Salk shots be made compulsory for school entrance, just as smallpox and diphtheria vaccines. School board members promised to consider it at their meeting August 13.

Short Shorts — Manufacturers will be asked to discontinue production of insecticides containing thallium sulphate, a State Health Department official reports. At least three children have died and dozens more have been hospitalized from thallium poisoning, said the announcement. . . . Texas will be asked to provide 687 men in September draft call, said State Selective Service headquarters. At the same time draft boards will be asked for 1,140 men to take pre-induction physical and mental examinations. . . . Lower Rio Grande Valley farmers have ginned 149,073 bales of cotton so far this year, compared with 138,915 for the same period in 1955, said the State Department of Agriculture. . . . Texas has won two more civil suits for recovery of veterans land funds.

An Austin district court has just awarded the state judgments totaling $97,511. . . . E. C. Nelson, senior engineer assistant at the State Health Department, resigned last week to enter private business. He is the second engineer to leave the department within the past month.

FIRE DESTROYS TANKS—Searing white-hot heat which burned 18 men to death and injured some 30 others was generated by an explosion and fire at this tank farm 12 miles northeast of Dumas. Remains of five huge petroleum storage tanks, two of them still burning here, may be seen in this picture by Lester Williams of The Amarillo Globe-Times.

VALUABLE STRAIN.

The railroad president was looking sadly at exorbitant claims farmers had made for cattle killed by his trains.

"It strikes me," he said, "that nothing improves the blood of American livestock like crossing it with a diesel locomotive."

APPROPRIATE GIFT.

An American couple sent a play-pen to a friend overseas on the arrival of her fourth child.

"Thanks so much for the pen," she wrote back. "It's really wonderful. I sit in it every afternoon and read and the children can't get near me."

Baptist Men of District to Attend Lueders Meeting

Numbers of Hamlin Baptist men will be among the approximately 1,000 men of Baptist District 17 who are expected to attend the annual Brotherhood encampment at Lueders Baptist Encampment grounds Tuesday of next week.

The meeting opens at 3:00 p. m. and will conclude with the night service. Men are invited to attend any portion of the all-day camp that they can. Fish fry will be served in the cafeteria between 5:30 and 7:00 p. m. at $1 per plate.

Outstanding speaker will be Governor Raymond Gary of Oklahoma, who was in the state Brotherhood program in Houston last year. Governor Gary is a Baptist, has served as superintendent of Sunday School and chairman of deacons of his home church, served four years as a member of the board of trustees of Oklahoma Baptist University and is now a member of the board of trustees of the Oklahoma Baptist Convention.

Fred C. Hughes of Boerne, state Brotherhood president, will speak at 7:15 p. m., and Bryan Bradbury, Abilene attorney, will talk on "World Conditions and Christianity" at 3:55 p. m. Clifford Ledy of Abilene is president of District 17.

Other speakers will include

OUT OF TURN.

The doctor rushed into the waiting room and called, "Come along, Mr. Smith, your bit of heaven has arrived—a beautiful girl."

At that moment a meek little man who had been sitting quietly in one corner of the room, timidly approached the doctor.

"If you don't mind, sir," he said, "I was next. I was sitting here for some time before this other gentleman arrived."

CHANGED OPINION.

"Isn't that your eye doctor?" "I thought he was until he sent me a bill. Now I know he is a skin specialist."

Rev. Byron Bryant of Stamford, encampment president; Rev. L. L. Trott of Abilene, district secretary; and Rev. C. A. Powell of Crwoell. Joe Breed of Anson will recognize the guests.

Governor Gary is slated to fly in his private plane for the meet-

Estimated Four From County to Be In August Draft

About four men from Jones County are slated to be called into service by the August draft call on the basis of the Texas allotment for August calling for 639 men, compared to 641 for July, Colonel Morris S. Schwartz state selective service director announced last week.

This is the state's share of a national call for 13,000 men, all for the Army.

At the same time, Colonel Schwartz announced an August call on approximately half the state's draft boards for 1,134 men to take pre-induction physical and mental examinations for future calls.

He said in his release to The Herald from Austin that the boards not receiving a quota for these examinations in August already had been called upon to furnish men for examination in July.

Local board calls for August induction and pre-induction examination were mailed from state selective service headquarters on July 3.

The August quota will be filled with men who are 22 years of age or older on July 1, with the exception of delinquents or volunteers, who may be younger.

Colonel Schwartz said he expected the August call to be filled with volunteers and men without children. He said delinquents are liable first, but the boards do not have many delinquent men.

As in the past, the state selective service director warned young fathers they must advise their boards about children or an expected child.

"If a local board is not advised about the birth or expected birth of a child," Colonel Schwartz said, "the board naturally proceeds on the idea such a man is childless, and he is therefore ordered for service."

CHICKENS ARE PLENTIFUL

The August list of plentiful foods is topped by broilers and fryers. Turkey supplies make this old favorite another good buy for August. Large quantities of all grades of beef are also available.

CROSS BURNED AT RAYBURN'S HOME—This is the remains of a cross that was found burning on the front lawn of the home of House Speaker Sam Rayburn in Bonham. Rayburn was in Washington and his sister, who lives at the house, was at a country home near Bonham. No arrests have been made, but police said they are working on several leads.

REVERSE ACTION.

A very old man with a weak heart won 50,000 pounds in a football pool in England. His family, fearing that the glad news might prove fatal, called in the vicar to break it to him.

"Now, John," began the vicar cautiously, "supposing you were to win one of these big prizes—50,000 pounds, say—what would you do with it?"

The old man pondered. "Well, sir," he said, "to start with I'd give you half of it for the church."

The vicar fell dead!

Corn Cunningham, the runner, was so badly burned when he was a young boy it was feared he would never walk.

QUITE ANNOYING.

A dashing young officer who had just graduated from England's military college was assigned to a remote base in one of the colonies.

As there were very few women at the base, the officer, more or less to keep in form, started flirting with the wife of the commanding officer every time they met. One day the CO stopped the young lieutenant on his parade grounds.

"See here, Jenkins," he demanded, "are you in love with my wife?"

"Oh, n-n-n-o, sir," stammered the embarrassed lieutenant. "Then stop making her think you are," exclaimed the CO. "It upsets her!"

Youth Revival at Methodist Church Begins Wednesday

Annual summer youth revival at the First Methodist Church will begin Wednesday night, August 2, and continue through Sunday, August 12, announces Rev. Darris L. Egger, pastor.

Rev. Weldon Crowley of Kerns, senior ministerial student at McMurry College in Abilene, will be the youth evangelist. Services will be daily at 7:30 p. m. The Methodist Youth Fellowship is sponsoring the annual revival for the young people of the community.

Each evening beginning at 6:00 o'clock a fellowship hour will be conducted for an hour and a half. The youth will eat at the church and have a period of recreation. The fellowship hour will be climaxed by an "inspiration time." Each night will be a different emphasis.

In preparation for the youth revival the young people will meet at the church on Monday and Tuesday nights for a time of spiritual preparation, consisting of prayer time and Bible study. During the day visiting will be done by the youth in behalf of the revival.

Both young and old of the community have a warm and special invitation to attend, declares Egger. "You will hear spiritual preaching from a dedicated young minister."

SWINE PRICE RELIEF.

A drop of eight per cent in the nation's spring pig crop and an indicated reduction of seven per cent in the number of sows to farrow this fall promise some relief for swine prices, says John G. McHaney, extension economist.

Colored kodachrome slides of scenes in Colorado, Nevada, California, Wyoming, Utah and New Mexico were shown as the program feature of the regular Tuesday noon luncheon of Hamlin Lions Club at the oil mill guest house.

The pictures were taken by Mr. and Mrs. B. V. Newberry on their tour of the Western states last summer. Newberry gave high lights of the scenes as the pictures were shown.

President Edgar Duncan announced that the sale of electric light bulbs last Saturday under sponsorship of the Lions Club netted $48.75 for the club's treasury. The Hamlin Boys Club also shared in the proceeds to the tune of $16.25.

Guests for the Tuesday luncheon included R. E. Perry of the Conoco plant west of Hamlin and Ray Christianson of Abilene.

Texas produces nearly half of the oil output of the United States, and has 56.8 per cent of the nation's known oil reserves.

"Battleship" was the first American horse to win the Grand National Steplechase.

SEED ALFALFA IN FALL.
Fall seeding is best for establishing alfalfa stands. A soil test will show what fertilizers are needed by this favorite forage crop. The seed bed should be firm, clean and moist and only certified seed should be planted, says E. M. Trew, extension pasture specialist.

Nazarene College Group Will Present Program Monday

Students from Bethany Nazarene College of Bethany, Oklahoma, will present an evening of inspiration and worship at the Hamlin Church of the Nazarene Monday evening at 7:45, according to Rev. Donald M. Wellman, pastor. The public is invited.

Bethany College Quartet will present an hour of sacred music, including hymns, gospel songs and spirituals. Rev. Curtis Smith, field representative, will appear with them to represent the college.

"This ensemble has been traveling all through the Southwest states this summer in behalf of the college," Wellman says. "There is no admission charge, and it is only the desire of the local church that the citizens of Hamlin come for an evening of inspiration."

DADDY CAN FIX ANYTHING

The tremendous faith of a child in his father!

To the conscientious father it is frightening, indeed. And, to the conscientious mother, equally frightening is her child's trust in her.

It takes something more than love and good intentions to live up to the expectations of our children. We need a strength and wisdom and tenderness that do not come automatically with the responsibility of parenthood.

God provides, and the Church instills in our lives, the spiritual gifts which our parenthood requires. We were meant to cultivate these qualities, for with every challenge God offers us adequate resources.

And our children will grow as we grow in the Christian faith, for the most obvious truth in the world is that a child wants to be like his Mother and Dad.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Sharing the Road Goes Long Way to Making Motoring on Highways Safer

"Share the Road—arrive alive!" In those words E. C. McFadden of Dallas, president of the Texas Safety Association, this week urged all motorists to support the share-the-road program of the Texas Safety Association, the Department of Public Safety and the National Safety Council. This program is being conducted in cooperation with the slow-down-and-live program of the National Conference of State Safety Coordinators.

"To stay safe in traffic, the driver must be keenly aware that he is not the only one on the road," McFadden said. "He's just one of many drivers, so he must keep in step with the others and share the road with them."

He said this involves, first of all, a willingness to share, and then the skill and judgment to do the right thing at the right time. He gave the following rules as a guide to drivers to help them fit their driving to the pattern of traffic around them:

1. Keep alert. Develop defensive driving. Study the road ahead for accident situations. The higher the speed, the farther ahead your attention must be fixed.

2. Think ahead. Plan emergency measures. Know your own and your car's capabilities. If the car ahead should suddenly block your lane, could you stop? Could you swerve to avoid an accident?

3. Be adaptable. Get the "feel" of the changing traffic, road and weather conditions. Adjust your speed immediately.

4. Pace yourself by the traffic around you. This includes noting traffic behind through constant use of your rear-view mirrors. Don't race. Don't lag. Don't ride the bumper of the car ahead.

5. Take only your share of the road—in the proper place. Keep in the proper lane. Pass only when you see you have ample time and space to avoid cutting out and in too sharply. Signal all turns and lane changes.

6. Obey to the letter all traffic laws, signs, signals and the dictates of common sense and courtesy. If you make a mistake, don't lose your head. Don't jeopardize yourself and others by hasty, foolishly sudden moves.

McFadden had a special word to say about safety on super-highways, pointing out that the higher speeds permissible on such roads make the above rules doubly important and vital. In addition, he said, this rule should be added: Watch signs carefully for rules governing the particular road you're traveling—such things as directions for entering or leaving the highway.

HOW YOU SEE IT.

"How much is the hotel bill?"
"It's $75."
"What, $75?"
"Yes, $40 for room and $35 for meals."
"Why $35 for meals? We didn't eat a meal here!"
"The meals were here. If you didn't eat them that is your fault."
"Then I will charge you $35 for kissing my wife."
"But I didn't kiss your wife."
"That's O. K. She was here. If you didn't kiss her, that's your fault."
"Your bill will be $40."

BUSY TO THE END.

The efficiency expert died, and they were giving him a fancy funeral.

Six pallbearers were carrying the casket out of the church when suddenly the lid popped open and the efficiency expert sat bolt upright and shouted, "If you'd put this thing on wheels you could lay off four men."

The new association, which replaces the 38-year-old Roby and Sweetwater NFLAs, has 486 stockholders with a total of $1,840,000 in loans. It has a surplus of $121,700 and reserves of $124,000, with total assets in excess of $425,000.

How Much Does It Cost You

when your neighbors

go out of town to buy?

We may think . . . when one of our neighbors buys a shirt, or a car, or a hot water bottle in the city . . . that it's nothing to us . . . unless we happen to be trying to make a living in the shirt, or car, or hot water bottle business here in this community.

But . . . as a matter of fact . . . every time a dollar leaks out of local circulation, it hurts everybody who lives around here.

Because . . . financial anemia is a very contagious disease. Trade volume . . . the lifeblood of every community . . . when drained off to invigorate some other place . . . leaves us weaker, our schools and churches poorer, job opportunities fewer, our own businesses less profitable, our property worth less, our living standards lower, and important help and services less convenient to us.

On the other hand . . . Prosperity is also contagious.

Every single dollar that stays here at home turns over again and again as long as it's here . . . to account for two, three, or more times it's value in increased local trade volume . . . to keep every single one of us in better economic health.

It Pays to Buy where You Live

Of all the business establishments in the world — only those in Hamlin are sincerely interested in the future of Hamlin and in the future of YOU who live here . . .
